“We must teach ourselves the things we expect our children to learn. It is extremely important for us to model a positive relationship with learning. By developing our daughter’s reading, writing and verbal reasoning skills, she will have the tools to succeed.”

Ryan and Lourdes White
Flint, MI

Literacy affects all of us and the quality of our lives. It takes many forms: reading/writing, health, financial and is a challenge for many. The Flint & Genesee Literacy Network is made up of hundreds of individuals and organizations committed to improving literacy rates in Genesee County.

If you or someone you know needs help, call 810.232.2526

flintandgeneseeliteracy.org
Parent involvement is a more significant factor in children’s academic performance than the quality of their school.

“Learning happens everywhere, however, it starts at home. As parents, we have a responsibility to instill a love for learning within our children.”

Deon and Demea Smith
Grand Blanc, MI

Family is the One Constant Across the Education Spectrum

Parent involvement is a more significant factor in children’s academic performance than the quality of their school.

Children Spend 900 Hours in School

Parent Involvement is Directly Tied to Student Performance and Has a Sustained Impact.

Children Spend 7,800 Hours Out of School

Contact us for more information and resources for your family.

If you or someone you know needs help, call 810.232.2526
flintandgeneseeliteracy.org